

3rd Indo-European Dance Festival, 2012 A festival of Indian & European classical dance styles

March 24th to April 1st, 2012

Here's how it began - In 2010, Nrityashri Alaknanda, a renowned Kathak Dancer, Choreographer and Art Motivator thought of a remarkable idea to organise, a dance festival, where for the first time, international and Indian classical dances could be learnt and performed. Hence, came the 1st Indo European Dance festival in 2010 and the success story repeated the 2nd Indo European Dance Festival in 2011. More than 350 participants have been introduced to French, Polish, Russian and Indian Classical dances over the last two years. They have also performed at prestigious venues like Kamani Auditorium, New Delhi, Kala Academy, Goa, Great India Place, Noida & NCPA, Mumbai;
